LETTER

Dear Sir:

The enclosed Supplemental Amendment is meant to supplement the Amendment filed with the Office yesterday, September 19, 2007. Unfortunately claim 90 was inadvertently excluded from the Amendment of September 19, 2007, but is included in the enclosed supplement. No changes were made to claim 90 in the enclosure except to change its designation from "New" to "Previously presented." Applicant submits that the error was an obvious error because on page 8 of the September 19, 2007 Amendment, claim 90 is listed as a "pending" claim (see line 10). The only other change made to the enclosed Supplemental Amendment occurs on page 1 where the listing of the page at which remarks begin was changed from 8 to 9.

Applicant does not believe that a further extension of time is necessary to file this paper. However if one is in fact needed, please consider this as a conditional request for that extension of time and please charge our deposit account no. 06-2425 for the applicable fee or fees, if any.

Date: September 20, 2007

Respectfully submitted,
